MEDIA ADVISORY

Administrative Investigation

The San Antonio Police Department's Internal Affairs Section, in cooperation with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, is conducting an administrative investigation into allegations of sexual harassment involving three members of the department. This is an administrative investigation pertaining to a sexual harassment complaint received from within the Department. Chief McManus has taken steps to eliminate any behavior that could potentially create a hostile work environment.

"Ensuring a thorough, fair, and timely investigation of these allegations is in the best interest of those involved", said Chief McManus. Due to privacy issues, specific allegations, including the identity of the parties, is being withheld.

The San Antonio Police Department takes any and all allegations of harassment very seriously and will ensure a fair and complete investigation.
